118th CONGRESS

A RESOLUTION

COMMITTEE RESOLUTION 118-20

A Resolution to Adopt an Additional Committee Consultant Contract Agreement with the Committee on the Budget

Be it resolved, that the Committee on House Administration hereby adopt an additional Committee Consultant Contract Agreement between the Committee on the Budget and Stephen McMillin, appended hereto, in order to authorize the expenditure of further sums by the Committee on the Budget in pursuance of this additional agreement and budget authority previously authorized under the authority of clause 1(k)(3) of rule X of the Rules of the House of Representatives and pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 4301, and that the Chairman is hereby authorized to convey the Committee's approval thereof.

118th Congress – First Session

COMMITTEE CONSULTANT CONTRACT AGREEMENT Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 4301

THIS AGREEMENT is made and entered into on September 1, 2023 by and between the Committee on _____ the Budget _____ of the U.S House of Representatives, hereinafter referred to as the Committee, and Stephen McMillin , hereinafter referred to as the Consultant, subject to the approval of this Agreement by the Committee on House Administration of the U.S. House of Representatives.

It is hereby agreed that the Committee, under the authority of House Rule X, adopted by the 118th Congress on January 9, 2023 , and any subsequent House committee funding authorization, retains the Consultant to render the following services:

The Consultant is to act as an independent contractor and is not an employee of the Committee. It is understood, however, that the Chair of the Committee, reserves the right to terminate this Agreement at any time. In such cases, the payment shall be based upon work performed.

The Committee further agrees to pay the said Consultant, consistent with the Speaker's Pay Order, for all such contractual services rendered, a sum not to exceed $10,870.00, plus authorized traveling expenses. It is further agreed that payment for such contractual services may be paid on a partial basis from time to time and in such amounts as the Chair of the Committee may approve.

The Consultant further agrees and warrants that it:

1. Has not employed any person to solicit or obtain this Agreement for any commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee.
2. Will hold the Government harmless from liability in performance.
3. Will release no information obtained in carrying out this Contract Agreement without prior consent of the Committee.
4. Will not subcontract or assign elsewhere any of the work or service involved without prior consent of the Committee.
5. Will not discriminate in its performance of this Agreement because of race, color, religion, sex (including marital or parental status), sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, age, or national origin; or commit an act of sexual harassment.
6. Will not use the position attendant to this Agreement to represent, lobby or advocate to the benefit of any other client or themselves with respect to any other matter pending before the Committee or the House of Representatives during the term of this Agreement.

7. Will abide, during the term of this Agreement, by House Rule XXIII, Clause 22(b), which applies clauses 1, 2, 3, 4, 8, 9, and 13 of the House Code of Official Conduct to Committee Consultants.
8. Will not lobby the Committee or the members or staff of the Committee on any matter; but may lobby other Members and staff of the House on matters outside the jurisdiction of the Committee.

Clauses 6, 7 and 8 above apply to the individual consultants and to individuals assigned by an organization of consultants to perform services related to this contract.

The Consultant further agrees that this Agreement will end no later than 09/30/2023. No Member or Delegate to Congress, or Resident Commissioner, shall be admitted to any share or part of this Contract or to any benefit that may arise therefrom.

Dear Chairman Steil,

I write to request authorization from the House Administration Committee for the Budget Committee to extend Mr. Stephen McMillin's contract as a consultant to the Committee. Mr. McMillin will continue to advise and consult the Committee on the budget drafting process.

I believe his experience and technical expertise will continue to be valuable to the Committee as we prepare for the FY '24 budget resolution.

I have asked the Majority of the current members of the Budget Committee and they support this request. Mr. McMillin's current contract ends on September 1, 2023. We expect his contract will run for 30 days. As signed contract agreement along with Mr. McMillin's resume are attached.

If you have any further questions about this request, please contact my Committee Staff Director, Gary Andres at gary.andres@mail.house.gov.

Sincerely
